Case Studies: Critical Managerial Choices

Examining real-world scenarios can illustrate how managers face and resolve defining moments.

Case Study 1: Ethical Dilemma in Sales Practices

A sales manager discovers that their team is engaging in aggressive tactics that border on dishonesty. The manager must decide whether to confront the team, report the issue to higher management, or turn a blind eye to meet targets. An employee consistently misses deadlines, affecting team productivity. The manager considers coaching, reassignment, or termination. Choosing to have a candid performance discussion and develop an improvement plan demonstrates a commitment to employee development and organizational success.

For students, downloadable books provide practical advantages. Offline access ensures uninterrupted study,

Access to Defining Moments When Managers Must Choose Between allows instructors to adapt content to different learning environments, including remote and hybrid settings.
