The play depicts a brutal scene where a young woman and a man are subjected to psychological and physical torment. The play begins with a man, referred to as the "interrogator," speaking to a woman, who is his victim. As the scene progresses, the interrogator's methods become increasingly disturbing, revealing the extent of his cruelty and the complicity of those who carry out such acts. The narrative is non-linear and fragmented, with Pinter using silence and ambiguous dialogue to heighten tension.
