The so-called Albert Pike letter to Mazzini is purportedly a three-page document penned by Pike, outlining a grand strategic plan for establishing global control through manipulating world events, religions, and revolutionary movements. The letter allegedly dates back to the late 19th century, during Pike's involvement in Freemasonry and his connections with secret societies. According to the narrative circulated in conspiracy circles, the letter describes a three-world war plan to be conducted over a century, culminating in a new world order that would see the rise of a one-world government, often linked with the concept of the Illuminati or other clandestine groups.

The first known mention of the Pike-Mazzini letter appeared in the 1920s in conspiracy literature, notably in "The Morning of the Magicians" (1960) by Louis Pauwels and Jacques Bergier, which popularized many esoteric and conspiracy theories.
